Cutting:

For the block's background, use a light fabric: 1 rectangle C of 21.5 x 26.5 cm (8 1/2" x 10 1/2")

For each of the 10 light "Courthouse steps" blocks:

- In scraps of a light fabric: 2 squares A of 3 cm (1 1/8") side, and 2 strips B of 3 x 6 cm (1 1/8" x 2 3/8")
- In scraps of a dark fabric: 1 central square A of 3 cm (1 1/8") side

For each of the 10 dark «Courthouse steps» blocks:

- In scraps of a dark fabric: 2 squares A of 3 cm (1 1/8") side and 2 strips B of 3 x 6 cm (1 1/8" x 2 3/8")
- In scraps of a light fabric: 1 central square A of 3 cm (1 1/8") side

Realisation:

Pattern 1: for 1 « Courthouse steps » block, sew 1 light square A on the 2 opposite sides of a dark square A. On the 2 other sides, add a strip B, made with the same light fabric.

Pattern 2: Made 10 light blocks.

For each of the 10 dark blocks, follow the same steps as for the 10 light blocks. Use 1 central light square A, 2 dark squares A and 2 dark strips B (with the same dark fabric).

Pattern 3: Help yourself with the following pattern to sew together the 20 « Courthouse steps » blocks. Create 5 lines and alternate colors and directions of each block, in relation with the directions of the other blocks. Sew lines together.

Patterns 4 & 5: Place your assembly on your work surface. Place the heart pattern on this assembly, in order to keep enough margin all round. Draw a line by following the heart shape of this pattern. Then, cut the excess of fabrics and make sure you leave a 7mm ($\frac{1}{4}$ ") margin all around your heart pattern.

Pattern 6: Place and center your heart on the right side of your rectangle C and use traditional appliqué to sew it. Use slip stitches to create your appliqué by refolding your sewing margins. Widen behind the heart in order to avoid having a fabrics thickness.
