

Editorial

After a few weeks of flitting here and there like a busy bee, I am back home with an abundance of photos, news, and quilt projects specially chosen to fill your summer! From Nashville to Kansas City, you will find out everything about the Modern Quilt Guild's huge QuiltCon show.
You will discover a singular artist in her exceptional home and learn all the latest trends and news presented at Market. In short, there's enough to keep you pleasantly occupied, lulled by the song of the cicadas, crickets or ukuleles, shaded from the searing rays of summer, while enjoying a frosty piña colada. Never forget that every day is -to be savoured!

(My apologies to our friends down under, who are partaking of the joys of winter, while enjoying roasted chestnuts!)

Have a wonderful summer!

*Warm regards,
Carol*
